MIDWAY MOTORS DUNEDIN CLASSIC

Sunday 24 February 2019

round 1

calderstewartseries.nz

Round 1 of the Calder Stewart Cycling Series is the Midway Motors Dunedin Classic. We are lucky enough to have Chris Henderson from Midway Motors has the round sponsor. The Henderson's are famous cycling name in Otago, New Zealand and the Pro Tour, so we feel privileged to have such a famous family supporting a round of the Calder Stewart Cycling Series.

"Always pleased to help out cycling in Otago. I have driven many Otago team to elite series races all over the South Island over the last ten years. To help out again is an honour and a privilege. The cycling community is very good to me so extremely happy to repay them by helping with this event." Chris Henderson Midway Motors.

Enjoy the first and arguably toughest round of the 2019 series with four new routes this year including the first ever ITT!

Ride hard and ride fair.

Richard and Jake

Course Description

Elite Men: 134.8km Masters 109.1km Women: 109.1km

The Midway Motors Dunedin Classic, the first round of the 2019 Calder Stewart Cycling Series is based around Taieri, Dunedin Airport and Lee Stream – about 20 minutes drive from Dunedin.

Everyone who has raced in Dunedin knows that the conditions can vary from perfect too harsh wind and weather making for some difficult conditions on course.

This course is made up of four laps of a circuit starting from the Outrum Rugby Club for the Elites and three laps for Masters and Women.

Points for the SBA Most Combative Rider are up for grabs on lap 1 (28km) and 2 (56.3km) for Men, Masters and Woman. Points available are 3, 2, 1 and carry over as bonus points for the Series as well.

The start is near the Outrum Rugby club. Sign in and Manager meetings will be at the Rugby Club.

The finish will be dominated by the last 14km climb up to Lee Stream School. Please note there is to be no parking on the main road near the School, please use side roads only.
